By-Laws of the Grande Ronde Radio Amateurs Association

Article I - Affiliation

1. The Grande Ronde Radio Amateurs Association shall be affiliated with the American Radio Relay League and shall conform to the customs and policies of that organization.

Article II - Membership

1. Membership. Full membership is open to licensed amateurs. Associate membership is open to all other interested persons. Full membership includes all club privileges as well as rights to hold a club office and to vote for club officers as delineated in the constitution. Associate membership includes all club privileges except for the right to hold office and to vote for club officers. Applications for membership shall be submitted at regular meetings. Persons who successfully obtain a Technician license while taking the exam through the GRRAA prior to August 1st of any calendar year, the examinee will be offered full membership with the GRRAA at no cost for the remaining calendar year. If the examinee successfully obtains a Technician license on or after August 1st of any calendar year, the examinee will be offered the remaining calendar year and the following calendar year (up to seventeen months) of free membership with the GRRAA.

Article III - Meetings

1. Meetings. Regular meetings shall be held on the fourth Tuesday evening of each calendar month.

2. Special meetings may be called by the President upon the written request of any five club members. Notices shall be sent to all members concerning special meetings and the business to be transacted. Only such business as designated shall be transacted. Such notices shall be sent so that they do not arrive less than 24 hours before the meeting.

3. Emergency Meetings - These can be called by the President or the Vice-President in the event that financial or legal issues arise that need to be addressed sooner than waiting until the next monthly meeting.

Article IV - Dues

5. Dues. Annual dues of $20.00 per member or family are hereby assessed in accordance with provisions of Article V of the constitution for the purpose of providing funds for expenses.

Membership dues are payable by March of each year.
